Directions to Harvard Business School Campus, Hawes Hall 301

By car with on-campus guest parking:

From Logan Airport: Follow signs for I-90 W (Massachusetts Turnpike/Ted Williams Tunnel). Take I-90 W to exit #20 for Allston and Cambridge. (Follow directions for “From I-90...” below)

From west of Boston: Take I-90 E (Massachusetts Turnpike) to exit #18 for Allston and Cambridge. (Follow directions for “From I-90...” below)

From north and south of Boston: Take I-93 (N or S) to exit #20 for I-90 W (Massachusetts Turnpike). Take I-90 W to exit #20 for Allston and Cambridge. (Follow directions for “From I-90...” below)

From I-90 (Massachusetts Turnpike) Allston/Cambridge Exit:

Parking instructions for all:

- Park in the University parking lot accessible via the HBS South Entrance.
- Important: Inform the parking attendant that you are on campus for the “Mayor’s Green Building Task Force” meeting in Hawes Hall, Room 301.
- You will not be charged for parking.

By Transit and then University Shuttle:

Take the Red Line to Harvard Square station (outbound to Alewife). Exit to the street using the MBTA’s Church Street exit. Walk across Massachusetts Avenue to Harvard’s Johnson Gate entrance to Harvard Yard.

Look for a Harvard University shuttle, chartered for the Mayor’s Green Building Task Force. University shuttles will make two pick-ups: 1:45PM and 2:45PM.

After the Task Force meeting, a University shuttle will return Transit users to Harvard Square station. Shuttle will leave the HBS campus at 5:10PM.

By Transit and then a 10-minute walk:

Take the Red Line to Harvard Square station (outbound to Alewife). Exit to the street.

John F. Kennedy Street runs through the center of Harvard Square. Walk south on John F. Kennedy Street, crossing Mount Auburn Street and over the Charles River via the Anderson Bridge.

The Harvard Business School is on the left, after the bridge. Take the first entrance into campus. Refer to the map for the location of Hawes Hall—it is one building east of the Baker Library, and is adjacent to the Dean’s House.
